

Author Check List

Your submission would be ready for consideration by this journal by checking off the followings.

- The principal author /corresponding must be the member of the Korean Society of Agriculture to become eligible for contributing papers to this journal.
- All authors have seen the article and are not only satisfied with its format and content but also agreed to order of names given in the manuscript.
- The manuscript has neither been published earlier nor is under consideration by any another journal.
- The Author has carefully prepared the whole text of submission according to the given 'Author Guidelines'.
- The submission file is in Microsoft Word or Hangul 3.0 file format. The text is single-spaced or double spaced for Microsoft Word or Hangul files respectively; uses a 12-point font.
- The e-mail address and telephone number of corresponding author is given after drawing a line at the bottom of 1st page of the submission.
- The experiment was carried out during last 5 years and not before that, and the article is submitted soon after completion of the experiment.
- All the required references have been provided at the end against each citation given in the text.
- Abstracts were written in English.
- References are written in English and according to the template/style.
- The authors agree to the terms and conditions of the given Copyright Notice, which would be applicable to each submission after it has been published by this journal.